

Jackson County Cultural Coalition Awards

$17,000 in Grants for 2012

- Ashland Gallery Association $950
Funds will help purchase art materials and supplies to be used by Ashland High School students in classrooms and exhibiting in Ashland Gallery Association galleries while working with volunteer artists.
- Ballet Folklorico Ritmo Alegre $1,125
This grant will help with the leasing of a costume storage and activity room at Central Medford High School and expenses for creating costumes for the dance troupe.
- Boys & Girls Clubs of the Rogue Valley $1,150
Funds will help underwrite a program that will introduce 250 children to culture and art from all over the world, while teaching them the value of an active, healthy, well-balanced and positive lifestyle.
- Dancing People Company $900
This grant will help place the entire dance company of six or seven artists in residence at Crater High School and a teaching artist in residence at Eagle Point High School for two weeks each.
- Ford Institute Leadership Program-Phoenix/Talent Cohort 2 $1,170
Funds will help in the creation of a mural in Talent and the building of a bandstand in Phoenix.
- Jacksonville Heritage Society $900
This grant will help with the cost of deferred maintenance of the St. Joseph's Catholic Rectory that includes replacing the roof, re-glazing and re-puttying windows, rebuilding the porch, and restoring the interior.
- Lake Creek Historical Society $850
The funds will help establish a website to make available materials from the Lake Creek Historical Society's collection available on-line.
- Rogue Community College $1,070
The grant will help purchase of music stands for use in the new music facility on the Riverside Campus in Medford.
- Rogue Opera $1,200
Funds will help underwrite performances for elementary school students of Opera Tales! Pinochhio in the more rural, underserved, areas of Jackson County.
- Rogue Valley SMART Program $1,550
The grant will help with the purchase of Caldecott and Newberry Award winning books for children in 26 Title One schools in Jackson County.
- Rogue Valley Symphony Association $1,200
The funds will help increase the numbers of visits by the Chamber Players Quintet to Jackson County Schools.
- Sams Valley Elementary School $1,050

The grant will help fund a program that will give students the opportunity to participate in a fine arts program once every other week at Sams Valley Elementary.

Siskiyou Institute

$900

Funds will help bring national touring and regional musicians into schools where the artists present workshops, mini performances and master classes.

Southern Oregon Historical Society

$1,000

The grant will help support an educational outreach program to collect and solve historical mysteries about people, places, and events in Jackson County.

St. Clair Productions

$1,000

Funds will help underwrite the costs for seven concerts, four workshops, and one school performance during the Winter/Spring Eclectic Music and More Series

Youth Symphony of Southern Oregon

$985

The grant will support scholarships to members of the orchestra.