

Jackson County Cultural Coalition

Fall 2004 Grantees (in alphabetical order)

1. Arts Council of Southern Oregon: $1,000.00
  - Phase 1 of a 3 phase on-line cultural calendar to promote awareness and coordination of cultural endeavors in Southern Oregon
2. Ashland High School/Dancing People Company: $750.00
  - New one week dance residency for one half of ninth graders and two public performances
3. Ashland Parks and Recreation/North Mountain Park Nature Center: $750.00
  - Part three of three part exhibit on cultural history of Shasta people (painting of exhibition walls and simulated dwelling “roof”)
4. Ballet Rogue: $750.00
  - Dance class scholarships for 12 West Medford boys and girls (ages 10-14) for two eight-week sessions (12 per session) and two public performances
5. “Music in the Mornings” Britt Festivals: $1,000.00
  - In-service training for teachers at 35 elementary schools to enhance the ongoing “Music in the Mornings” classical music listening program by incorporating a new visual arts component
6. CASA of Jackson County: $500.00
  - Cultural fund to enable cultural educational opportunities for children under care of DHS-child welfare
7. City of Central Point/Parks and Recreation: $750.00
  - Expansion of after-school movement theater and circus arts program to two more school sites for seventy students
8. Jefferson Nature Center: $750.00
  - Support for one high school and one college team of two writers and one visual artist, each, to participate in a thirty member collaborative process which creates a performance and a publication inspired by Bear Creek urban and wild environments

9. Lithia Arts Guild of Oregon: $500.00

- Emergency grant to complete a firewall required by the City of Ashland before community and artists can occupy and use the former Briscoe elementary school

10. Medford School District: $500.00

- New artist-in-residence program for eighty-one special education students from five classrooms

11. Southern Oregon Historical Society: $750.00

- To initiate “Free Wednesdays” at the Jacksonville Museum and Children’s Museum

12. Southern Oregon University Foundation/Schneider Museum of Art: $750.00

- Community presentation and half-day workshop for public officials and community members on how public art benefits communities

13. Upper Rogue Community Center: $500.00

- One day weekly art instruction during 2004-05 at Shady Cove Middle School utilizing Upper Rogue volunteer artists

14. Woodville Museum: $500.00

- Installation of roll-up door in barn housing stagecoach to facilitate safekeeping and public viewing